Copies of documents used in this meeting are available in accessible formats upon written request.

Links and Information for Equity Discussion (COM):

An ESL instructor recently shared two videos from USF Urban Education & Social Justice, which focus on our own need to grow individually: "Color of Fear: Just Be American" and "Color of Fear - What It Means to Be American." Watch the two videos and fill out Jane Elliott's Commitment to Combat Racism questionnaire.

Discussion Questions and additional resources:

- What was your reaction to the videos and the questionnaire?
- How do white cultural dominance and “being American” impact people of color in libraries? What kind of culture shift is needed?
- Reflections on Race and Racism: ALA affiliate and division leaders speak out
- Connecting to March’s discussion on creating a link with useful tools and resources:
 - COM Library Racial Justice LibGuide
 - Equity Resources at College of Marin Library

Brown Act:

The legislative body of a local agency may use teleconferencing in connection with any meeting or proceeding authorized by law. Cal. Gov't Code §54953(b)(1). A "teleconference" is "a meeting of a legislative body, the members of which are in different locations, connected by electronic means, through either audio or video, or both." Cal. Gov't Code § 54953(b)(4). A local agency may provide the public with additional teleconference locations. Cal. Gov't Code § 54953(b)(4).

The teleconferenced meeting must meet the following requirements:

- (1) it must comply with all of the Act's requirements applicable to other meetings;
- (2) all votes must be taken by roll call;
- (3) agendas must be posted at all teleconference locations and the meeting must be conducted in a manner that protects the statutory and constitutional rights of the parties or public appearing before the body;
- (4) each teleconference location must be identified in the notice and agenda and each location must be accessible to the public;
- (5) during the teleconferenced meeting, at least a quorum of the members of the legislative body must participate from locations within the boundaries of the body's jurisdiction; and
- (6) the agenda must provide the public with an opportunity to address the legislative body at each teleconference location. Cal. Gov't Co).
